

How To End A Debate – Examples

Example 1:

Ladies and gentlemen, we have talked about the health, environment and public decency of smoking in public. Through these reasons we propose, it is clear that smoking in public places should be banned.

Example 2:

I agree that we need to make sure that animals that are used for testing new products have a minimum of suffering. However, I am convinced that animal testing is necessary and that it will continue to benefit humans in new and wonderful ways.

Example 3:

In conclusion, physical punishment can be a useful method of discipline. However, it should be the last choice for parents. If we want to build a world with less violence we must begin at home, and we must teach our children to be responsible.

Example 4:

I think this is not an either/or question. Both men and women have strengths and skills that are important for children's psychological growth. We need to ensure that both parents play an important role in the family in order to give children a good start in life.

Example 5:

Finally, I feel that we cannot generalize about children or adults being better learners. It depends on the situation and the motivation of the person, and the level of enthusiasm he or she has for learning.

Example 6:

In summary, our society would be healthier if more people took part in sports of all kinds. We should continue to try to prevent accidents and injuries. However, we should also ensure that sports are challenging, exciting, and, above all, fun.
